Inspiré d'une histoire vraie, ce roman raconte, au coeur du génocide rwandais, les affres psychologiques et la déchéance morale de Stanislas, un prêtre hutu, accusé de viols et de crimes contre l'humanité. On suit au quotidien la mécanique qui mène à consentir puis à participer à l'extermination d'un million de personnes en cent jours. Exilé en France, Stanislas y sera mollement poursuivi. Répondra-t-il de ses actes devant la justice des hommes ? Ce récit aborde la question du rôle de l'Église dans le génocide de 1994.

Evidence Under the Rules: Texts, Cases, and Problems, Fifth Edition, 2004

by Christopher B. Mueller, Laird C. Kirkpatrick

Call No05ME049

This highly successful, problem-based coursebook for the basic evidence course enters its Fifth Edition reflecting recent changes to the Federal Rules of Evidence and providing even greater flexibility for teaching and learning.

With each edition of Evidence Under the Rules, the authors refine their approach and build on their book's popular features: The book is organized around the Federal Rules of Evidence, and covers the basics clearly and succinctly. A combination of explanatory text, problems, carefully-selected cases, and notes provide superb coverage and sustains interest in the subject. Engaging and realistic problems effectively raise critical issues in evidence law and application of the Federal Rules. Careful editing pares down cases to include enough facts to provide context while focusing on evidence issues. Flexible organization allows professors to easily restructure the material to fit their course organization. Extensive Teacher's Manual provides analysis of featured cases, problems, and issues raised in the note material. Annual Rules supplement contains the text of the Federal Rules standing alone, along with a separate section setting forth both the Rules and the accompanying advisory committee notes and relevant congressional reports, making for a full teaching package covering the whole course.

In addition to changes in the rules integrated throughout the book, the Fifth Edition presents:

Several new feature cases and problems, extensively revised note material, updated references in notes to additional opinions decided since the previous edition of the book. Revised material on scientific evidence to reflect developments since Kumho Tire and the recent changes in FRE 702 in expert testimony. Revisions designed to shorten and clarify the introductory material on the hearsay doctrine. References to State v. Crawford, currently being reviewed in the United States Supreme Court, which may bring developments in the against-interest exception and the jurisprudence of the Confrontation Clause.

Summer School on International Criminal Law

June 26 - July 7, 2006
The Hague, The Netherlands

Sponsored by the Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies at Leiden University in The Hague and the Asser Institute. The Summer School is for students who want to deepen their knowledge on international criminal law in a brief time period. Professionals from various international legal organisations, such as the International Criminal Court (ICC), the International Crimes Tribunal for the former Yugoslavia (ICTY) and influential scholars contribute to this course. The School challenges students to determinedly contemplate international criminal law, to interact with professionals who are connected to international tribunals and to promote the rule of law. The program is built around the following main themes: Introduction to International Criminal Law, Substantive International Criminal Law and Procedural International Criminal Law. In addition, there will be exercise sessions on the topics of implementation and cross-examination techniques. The intended audience are (nearly) graduated law students with a background in international law and with an obvious interest in international criminal law. Places are limited to 30.
