CONFERENCE ALERTS

Summer School on International Criminal Law

Monday, June 22 2009 - Friday, July 03 2009

The Hague (The Netherlands)

The Grotius Centre for International Legal Studies is proud to announce its seventh Summer School on International Criminal Law, to be held in The Hague from 22 June until 3 July 2009. In light of its location and the quality of its contributors and participants, this School offers a unique opportunity to gain expertise International Criminal Law. - Interactive Lectures ? every year, specialised and interactive lectures and seminars are given by leading professionals from the ICC and the ICTY as well as influential and well-known scholars (the past years, the School invited, among others, Professors Eric David, William Schabas et Cherif Bassiouni, as well as Judges Sang-Hyun Song and Navanethem Pillay).

Direct access to international institutions ? known as 'the City of Peace and Justice', The Hague is the host city of several international institutions with a key-role in the development of international (criminal) law (visits will be organized to the ICJ, the ICC and the ICTY).

Diversity ? the Summer School welcomes about sixty participants from all over the world. One of the main purposes of the School is to bring together members of English and French speaking communities to engage in interactive discussions on the prospects and challenges of international criminal justice.
